War Department, A.G.O., December 19, 1931. - To The Adjutant General, State of Texas, Austin, Texas.

1. No record has been found on file in this office of the service in Co. F, 2nd Texas Infantry, C.S.A., of any man under the name James Clements.

2. The records do show, however, that one James K. P. Clements, private, Co. I, 2nd Texas Infantry, C.S.A., enlisted March 11, 1862 at Austin, Texas and was killed in the battle of Shiloh April 7, 1862.

> 3. The records also show that one N. V. Scarborough (name not found as Noah Vicks Scarborough), served as a private in Co. B, Waul's Texas Legion, Cavalry Battalion, C.S.A. He enlisted April 28, 1862 at Gonzales, Texas. The date of his enlistment is also shown as May 1, 1862. The muster roll of the company for July and August, 1863, shows him absent on extra duty in the Quartermaster Department. His name is not borne on subsequent muster rolls of the company on file and no later record of him as a member of this organization has been found. The name N. V. Scarborough, private, Co. I, 24th and 25th Texas Cavalry (Consolidated), C.S.A., appears on a regimental return for the month of March, 1865, which shows that he joined, by enlistment, in DeWitt County, March 1, 1865. The regimental return for April, 1865, shows that he joined April 30, 1865 at Camp Lubbock, and that he was transferred. No additional record of him has been found.

> 4. The records show that Nathan Mathews served as a private in Co. C, 9th Regiment (Nichols'), Texas Infantry, which organization was also known as the 5th Texas Infantry (6 months, 1861-1862). He enlisted October 18, 1861 at Galveston and his name appears on the company muster out roll dated April 24, 1862. He re-enlisted May 12, 1862, at Camp Waul, as a private of Captain P. Millican's Company H, also known as Company C, Infantry Battalion, Waul's Texas Legion, C.S.A. The last muster roll on file is for January and February, 1864, and shows him present. No additional record of him has been found.

5. No record has been identified of the service from 1862 to 1877, of Francis Marion Kennedy. If information can be furnished showing the organization in which he served, a further search of the records will be gladly made.

C. H. Bridges

Major General,
The Adjutant General.
